4. Facts That Justify a Sole Source Procurement

A. The District of Columbia Office of the People’s Counsel (“DC OPC” or “Office”) is an independent agency of the District of Columbia government. By law, it is the advocate for consumers of natural gas, electric and telephone services in the District. District of Columbia law designates the Office as a party to all utility-related proceedings before the District of Columbia Public Service Commission (“DC PSC”). The Office also represents the interests of District ratepayers before federal regulatory agencies. The Office is authorized to investigate the operation and valuation of utility companies independently of any pending proceedings.

Acadian Consulting Group conducts the following tasks

- (1) Acadian Consulting Group shall provide an expert technical advice and assistance with respect to preliminary technical issues, analysis of Pepco’s application and pre-filed testimony to assist OPC in identifying and formulating issues for potential litigation with respect to Pepco's Application to increase electric rates in the District of Columbia. Analysis will include, but is not limited to regulatory lag, cost containment and administrative and general expense peer analysis

<sup>1</sup> Procurement authority is vested in the Commission pursuant to § 13(c) (2) of the Residential Real Property Seller Disclosure, Funeral Services Date Charge, and Public service Commission Independent Procurement Authority Act of 1998 (D.C. Law 12-263). The Commission is statutorily exempt from the D.C. procurement rules as set forth in D.C. Official Code § 1-1181 et seq.

DC Code § 34-804, hereby established within the Public Service Commission of the District of Columbia, as established by D.C. Code § 34-801, as Office to be known as the “Office of the People’s Counsel.” The Office shall be a party, as of right, in any investigation, valuation, revaluation, or proceeding of any nature by the Public Service Commission of or concerning a public utility operating in the District of Columbia.

- B. (2) Acadian Consulting Group is well qualified to provide assistance to DC-OPC because it has:
- i) extensive experience in the field of electricity regulations.
  - (ii) it has already submitted a testimony on behalf of the Office with the DC PSC in Pepco's rate case
- C. It is for the reasons outlined herein that it is recommended that a sole source contract be awarded to Acadian Consulting Group.

5. Certification by the Contracting Officer

I hereby certify that the above facts are accurate and complete.
