Utility Discount Program (UDP) Descriptions

Please see the back of flyer for UDP enrollment process, Income Eligibility Requirements and documentation information.

Residential Essential Service (RES) Program

Eligible Washington Gas customers in the District of Columbia may qualify for a discount on a portion of the natural gas they use during the winter heating season from November to April.

To participate in RES, District residents must use natural gas as the principal source for home heating. RES eligible customers will receive an approximate 25% discount on the total bill.

Customer Assistance program (CAP)

Eligible residential DC Water customers in the District may qualify for a discount of up to 400 cubic feet (4ccf or approx. 3,000 gallons) of water and sewer services used each month. Potential discount could be over $480.00 annually.

Eligible households and tenants will receive an additional credit of fifty percent (50%) off of the monthly Clean Rivers Impervious Surface Area Charge (CRIAC) bill.

Residential Aid Discount (RAD) Program

Eligible Pepco customers in the District may qualify for the Residential Aid Credit (RAC) for the full customer and energy charges for energy distribution, in addition to the following surcharges: the Residential Aid Discount Surcharge, the Sustainable Energy Trust Fund, and the Energy Assistance Trust Fund Surcharge.

Potential savings of $300-475 annually.

Lifeline Services

Economy II Service, also known as “Voice Lifeline” is a government assistance program offered by Verizon in the District that provides discounted at home local telephone service to qualified DC customers. Voice Lifeline Service is available for $3.00 per month to qualified DC customers under 65 years of age, and $1.00 for qualified seniors 65 years of age or older.

Voice Lifeline is a non-transferable benefit and only one discount is available per household, consisting of at home, broadband or wireless. Only eligible customers may enroll in the Voice Lifeline programs.

For eligibility and other questions and/or to obtain an application, please call the DC Lifeline Administrator at 800-253-0846. DOEE does not accept Voice Lifeline.

Video Relay Services (VRS) users must call 202-727-1000
